Quantified Statements

- Read carefully pages 63 through 64 (section 2.11)
- Some key questions to answer:

  1. When do we say that a concept that is defined via a property $P(x)$ is characterized by a property $Q(x)$?
  2. Illustrate with some examples.
  3. What is the practical importance of characterizations?